

Little Children

Anyone who does not welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it

Anyone who does not welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it

The Kingdom of God

The Kingdom of creation

There are more stars in the universe than grains of sand on all the beaches of the earth.

WOW

Elephants are the only mammal that cannot jump

WOW

It has been found that plants do indeed communicate with each other

WOW

A child reacts to facts such as this with wonder. Nonfiction books are filled with wonder. This often stimulates the child to ask why?

As the years progress more and more is taken for granted. As age moves beyond innocence less and less is observed.

It is our Faith that the created world is wonderful

WOW

Anyone who does not welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it

There are reasons why the baby sleeps with security close to the mother, with dependence and acceptance without the need of words.

I LOVE YOU

There is a trust which although vulnerable is open to the care of the other.

I LOVE YOU

There is the capacity within the child to admire, respect, honour the goodness given by another

I LOVE YOU

As the years progress more and more is bruised and battered As age moves beyond innocence less and less is accepted.

It is our Faith that although others are not without fault we should still take the risk of relationship

I LOVE YOU

Anyone who does not welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it

There is no sound in the world more beautiful than the giggling of a child

IT IS FUN

There is little as silly as that which makes children laugh

IT IS FUN

Games are played, fantasy displayed, for no more reason than joy

IT IS FUN

As the years progress more and more is taken for perceived serious reason. As age moves beyond innocence less and less is celebrated for its own sake.

It is our Faith that we are but the children of God living to celebrate love

IT IS FUN

Anyone who does not welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it

Grow older my friends but never grow up

Retain the sense of wonder

Retain the sense of love

Retain the sense of Fun

Grow older my friend but never grow up

Anyone who does not welcome the Kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it
