Columban Mission

Many thanks to Fr Tom Ryan who gave the mission appeal last weekend. He very kindly commented on how the community was homely and welcoming. You are a great group of people with your own mission to bring hope to this part of the world.

October Coach Trip

This trip is only a week away on Tuesday 7th October leaving St Josephs at 9.00 am and then St Edwards (The Anchor) at 9.15 am, we will be returning from Liverpool at 5.00 pm. This is a great city centre with gallery's museum's, the docks, places to eat and shop Two Cathedrals, a tourist pop on drop off bus. A simple but great day out. There is still room so put your names down. The cost just £15.00 per person

If you wish to join us on this trip, please enter your name, contact details on the sheet at the back of both churches. Place into the basket an envelope marked Liverpool Trip, your name and money.

Fr Brian's Long Ramble

Thanks go to all who covered while Fr Brian was away walking up to Appleby. Thanks to those who made sure that all carried on wonderfully and to those who published the pictures of my journey.

There are many stories to tell of sunshine and rain. One event on the top of Whernside a young lad asked first if he could be excused from enquiring but "How old are you?"

Or the taxi driver who covers the area between Ingleborough and Whernside telling me of his weekend earner, and six spots that have a signal. Every Saturday of the season those with mobile phones, but no idea, ring for a lift back to their cars.

To view the photographs of the walking trip, visit the parish website Darwen Catholic Parishes and scroll down to the bottom of the home page to Photo's of Fr. Brian Walking Trip 2025.
